REGARDING ALLEGED DISCOURTESY SHOWN TO HON. MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA (Andhra Pradesh): Mr. Chairman, Sir, with great pain and anguish, I would like to bring to your notice as well as to the notice of hon. Members here a very...

MR. CHAIRMAN: The Minister of Parliamentary Affairs to hear what the hon. Member says.

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: ...unhappy incident to which I was subjected yesterday. This is a minor incident, but has a major bearing on the dignity and privileges of Members of this House as well as the other House. Yesterday, I went to the Transport Bhavan to meet the Minister of Civil Aviation, Mr. Jagdish Tytler, on prior appointment, at 3 P.M. When I reached there, I was asked to pass through a metal detector, which I did. After that, I was stopped, even before I entered the Private Secretary's room, by the policeman on duty. He wanted to frisk me. I showed my identity card and told him that I am a Member of Parliament, and came there on prior appointment. He said 'These are the orders of the Minister; you have to be frisked'. In protest, I did not meet the Minister and I had to come away. I would not have taken it seriously if the Minister, who had come to know of the incident, had at least shown the courtesy of telephoning me to say that he was sorry for the incident. Not only did he not do it but he made the insult all the more greater by asking one of his junior P. As to telephone to me and explain why I was not received and why I was subjected to that incident. Today, I came to the House much earlier. Mr. Jagdish Tytler also came much earlier. Today at least he should have had the courtesy to say sorry for the incident. I am sorry, Mr. Chairman at this kind of treatment being given to hon. Members of Parliament. The Prime Minister is always courteous; whenever we meet him, he opens the door to see us off. The other senior Ministers are also courteous whenever we telephone to them. I had another bad incident with one of the junior Ministers. I had to telephone 55 times to talk to him. This is the type of treatment we are getting particularly, from those who claim proximity to the Prime Minister, who are close to the Prime Minister, who are in the inner circle of the Prime Minister. Their behaviour is arrogant and obnoxious. This should not be allowed, if the privileges of Members of Parliament are to be protected. I seek you protection.
